Council tax in Staffordshire could increase by £20 to help police and fire budgets

3 JANUARY 2023 09:23 | WEST MIDLANDS EXPRESS & STAR

Council tax in Staffordshire could increase by up to £20 to help fund police and fire services in the county amid an "expanding funding gap" due to inflation.

Proposals include a six per cent rise in the precept for both services – equating to £15 for police and £5 for the fire service for an average Band D household.

Time to have YOUR say on how much you are prepared to pay for emergency services

22 DECEMBER 2022 08:47 | TAMWORTH HERALD SERIES

STAFFORDSHIRE Commissioner for Police, Fire and Rescue and Crime, Ben Adams is asking people to have their say on how much they would be prepared to pay for services. Funding for the police and fire and rescue services is made up of a mix of central government grants, combined with the 'precept' - the contribution residents make as part of their annual council tax. The Staffordshire Commissioner is responsible for setting the budget for Staffordshire Police, and Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service, including this precept amount.
